HipCityVeg founder Nicole Marquis explains how veganism, personal well-being and a larger sense of purpose shape the way she leads and grows her business.

Nicole Marquis, founder of Philadelphia's HipCityVeg vegan restaurant chain, strongly believes in a holistic approach to living and managing a venture. In this interview with EIX Editor Donna De Carolis, Marquis talks about how her commitment to veganism shapes her own sense of well-being and helps her run a successful business. "When you are working towards a greater good," she says, "there's an incredible energy behind you that keeps you going through the challenges."
