

Ann Winblad, Entrepreneur and Venture Capitalist

David Deeds (University of St. Thomas)

KEYWORDS: Entrepreneurship, Venture Capital, Strategy, Alliance Management, Women.

In a candid interview with EIX's David Deeds, Ann Winblad, co-founder and managing director of Hummer Winblad Venture Partners, shares her war stories -- including her earliest entrepreneurial experiences sewing and selling Barbie doll clothes; how she convinced a bank to lend her money for her first company; and what she learned from other entrepreneurs, family members and ABBA. She also discusses the qualities that make entrepreneurs successful: having a mission as well as a product, and giving your all to your company, colleagues, industry and the causes you're passionate about.
